

Worksheet: Similes for Love and Relationships

This worksheet helps you review common similes that describe love, friendship, and emotional connection. Complete each part to practice identifying, using, and reflecting on figurative language.

Part 1: Match the Simile to Its Meaning

Write the letter of the correct meaning next to each simile.

1. Like a roller coaster
2. Like two peas in a pod
3. Like honey to a bee
4. Like a rock
5. Like a storm at sea

Meanings:

- A. Naturally attracted
- B. Emotionally unpredictable or intense
- C. Steady and dependable
- D. Very close and similar
- E. Full of highs and lows

Part 2: Complete the Sentence Using a Simile

Choose a simile from the word bank to complete each sentence meaningfully.

1. After the breakup, their relationship felt _____.
2. We've known each other forever—we're _____.
3. He was always there for her, _____.
4. The way she looked at him—he was _____.
5. Their arguments were unpredictable, _____.

Word Bank: like two peas in a pod, like a storm at sea, like honey to a bee, like a roller coaster, like a rock

Part 3: Write Your Own Similes

Write two original similes about love or connection. Be creative!

1. _____
2. _____

Part 4: Reflection

Why do writers and speakers use similes to describe love and relationships?

Answer Key – Similes for Love and Relationships

◆ Part 1: Match the Simile to Its Meaning

Simile	Correct Match
1. Like a roller coaster	E. Full of highs and lows
2. Like two peas in a pod	D. Very close and similar
3. Like honey to a bee	A. Naturally attracted
4. Like a rock	C. Steady and dependable
5. Like a storm at sea	B. Emotionally unpredictable or intense

◆ Part 2: Complete the Sentence Using a Simile

(Suggested answers—students may vary slightly)

1. After the breakup, their relationship felt like a roller coaster.
2. We've known each other forever—we're like two peas in a pod.
3. He was always there for her, like a rock.
4. The way she looked at him—he was like honey to a bee.
5. Their arguments were unpredictable, like a storm at sea.

✓ Accept any variations that preserve correct metaphorical meaning and grammar.

◆ Part 3: Write Your Own Similes

✓ Open-ended — strong answers should include:

- A “like” or “as” comparison
- A clear relationship/emotion theme
- A vivid or relatable image

Example:

- “Their friendship was like a blanket on a cold night.”

◆ Part 4: Reflection

✓ Sample response might include:

- “Similes make feelings easier to understand.”
- “They help paint a picture of love in the reader’s mind.”
- “They add emotion and creativity to language.”